

Harriet Tubman

By Peter and Aurora

Date Of Birth Date Of Death

- Harriet Tubman was born in Auburn, New York in March, 19 1820.

- Harriet Tubman died in March, 10 1913 in her home in Auburn, New York.

The Family She Was Born Into

- She was born into a family of slaves
- Her mother's name is Harriet Greene Ross
- Her father's name is Ben Ross
- She had 3 brothers and 2 sisters
- They were really strict

Location

- She only lived in Auburn, New York

Conditions

- Harriet Tubman suffered a head injury
- She also suffered a head wound
- Also some dream experiences

Schooling

- Harriet Tubman had no schooling

Work

- She worked as a spy, a nurse, and a scout.

Major Accomplishments

- Her major accomplishment was the Underground Railroad and helped John Brown with the raid on Harper's Ferry

Personal Reflection

- Our personal reflection is that African American people wouldn't have freedom thanks to her

Resources

- World Book T-19- Work, the family born into
- Black Canadian History - Schooling , Conditions
- Wikapedia.org – Born, Relatives, Cause of death, major accomplishments

Bibliography

- World Book T.19
- Black Canadian History
- Wikipedia.org