

Christmas In Russia

There are 122.5 million people in Russia. In the Orthodox church Christmas is celebrated on January 7th, but for the Catholic church they celebrate Christmas on December 25th.

Finland

Sweden

Russia

Poland

Ukraine

Kazakhstan

Mongolia

Turkey

China

Japan

South Korea

Afghanistan

Iraq

Iran

Pakistan

Egypt

Libya

Map data ©2014

How to say Merry Christmas In Russian

- Schastlivego Rozhdestva

In Russia They Have A Santa Like Us

The main Russian Christmas character is Santa

- Santa is the only Christmas character in Russia.

Meals

- On Christmas Eve in Russia the meals are meatless, but on Christmas meals however, includes delicacies such as hot roast Pirog and Pelmeni. The most important ingredient is a special porridge called Kutya.

What do they get for Christmas?

- All good or bad boys or girls get the same toys and presents for Christmas.

How To Make Kuyta.

- 1 cup of wheat
- 4 cups of water
- ½ cup of raisins
- ½ cup of ground walnuts
- ½ cup of poppy seeds
- Honey to taste, 2-3
- Salt to taste (if needed)

Unique Things

- On Christmas Eve Russians don't eat anything until the first star appears.
- They also have ten days of Christmas.